Tell Me Why - Neil Young

```
 G                           A
Sailing heartships through broken harbours,
Emi7                          D
out on the waves through the night.
  G                     A
Still a searcher, must ride the dark horse,
 Emi7                 D
racing along in his fright.

Tell me why,

When you're old enough to repay, but young enough to sell.

Tell me lies, later come and see me,
Emi7                  D
I'll be around for awhile.
G                A
I am lonely but you can free me,
Emi7                      D
all in the way that you smile.
