Wish You Were Here - Pink Floyd

```
C                       D
So, so you think you could tell
             Am                   G                          D
heaven from hell, blue skies from pain, can you tell a green  field
                  C                    Am                      G
from a cold steel rail? A smile from a veil? Do you think you could tell?
                    C                       D
Did they get you to trade, your hero's for ghosts, hot ashes for Am trees
              G                             D                 C
Hot air for a cool breeze, cold comfort for change, did you exchange, Am                          G a walk on part in the war, for a lead role in a cage?

C                               D
How I wish, how I wish you were here,
           Am                                   G                  D
We're just two lost soles swimming in a fish bowl, year after year,

                                C                                 Am
Running over the same old ground, but have we found the same old fears,
               G
Wish you were here
