A                       D
I took a course in Hallelujah
A                                D
  I went to night school for the blues
A                                  D
 I took some stuff they said would cool ya, heh hah
A                               D
 But nothing seemed to light my fuse

         F#m        B           D                    E
But it's all in the past like a check that's in the mail
          F#m          B
She was a tall whiskey glass
         D                                            E
I was an old hound dog that just loved to chase his tail

              D       A       E                B
Until I met a   blind man who taught me how to see, yeah
D         A             E
  A blind man who could change night into day
         D    A              E                   B
And if-a    I can, I'm gonna make you come with me, yeah
        D
Cause a-here comes the sun and we'll be chasin' all the clouds away

    I've had some lovers like a joy   ride

B                               E      F#
 Some thing are never what they seem
A                           D      F#m
 My heaven's turned into a landslide
B                                A    G
 Thank God I woke up from that dream

        D       A       E               B

I met a   blind man who taught me how to see, yeah
D         A             E
    Blind man who could change night into day

And if-a    I can, I'm gonna make you come with me, yeah
        D
Because a-here comes the sun and we'll be chasin' all the clouds away

E                 F#m        E                      D
  So please chase harder and drink all the flowers dry
         E                    F#m
We'll be savin' us a little money
       G                                            A
And if that doesn't do it, yeah, I know the reason why

                              D
Don't make no sense lightin' candles, ah
B                                   A     G
 There's too much moonlight in your eyes

        E       B       F#               C#
I met a   blind man who taught me how to see, yeah
E         B             F#
    Blind man who could change night into day
         E    B              F#                 C#
And if-a    I can, I'm gonna make you come with me, oh oh oh oh yeah

          E
Because a-here comes the sun, ain't no surprise

Ain't no doubt about it, gonna open up my eyes
