The Bard's Song - Blind Guardian

```
Ami         G
Now you all know
    Emi             Ami
The bards and their songs
     Ami             G
When hours have gone by
Emi           Ami
I'll close my eyes
     Ami       G
In a world far away
   Emi       Ami
We may meet again
    Ami         G
But now hear my song
          Emi         Dmi
About the dawn of the night
      C    G   Ami    Emi
Let's sing the bards' song

  Dmi Ami      Dmi      Ami
Tomor-row will take us away
Dmi      Ami
Far from home
Dmi          Ami  G        Dmi
No one will ever know our names
        F            G      Dmi
But the bards' songs will remain
  Dmi Ami      Dmi      Ami
Tomor-row will take it away
    Dmi       Ami
The fear of today
Dmi        F
It will be gone
    Ami
Due to our magic songs

        Ami      G
There's only one song
Emi        Ami
Left in my mind
Ami        G
Tales of a brave man
    Emi            Ami
Who lived far from here
        Ami            G
Now the bard songs are over
    Emi          Ami
And it's time to leave
Ami           G               Emi
No one should ask you for the name
       Dmi
Of the one
    C     G   Ami G
Who tells the sto-ry

  Dmi Ami      Dmi      Ami

```
Tomor-row will take us away
Dmi      Ami
Far from home
Dmi         Ami  G        Dmi
No one will ever know our names
        F            G      Dmi
But the bards' songs will remain
  Dmi Ami Dmi         Ami
Tomor-row all will be known
    Dmi         Ami
And you're not alone
   Dmi       Ami
So don't be afraid
       G        Dmi
In the dark and cold
           F            G    C  G  Ami
'Cause the bards' songs will rema---in
     C   G      Ami
They all will remain

C     G            Ami
In my thoughts and in my dreams
        C      G     Ami
They're always in my mind
      C        G        Ami
These songs of hobbits, dwarves and men
    C
And elves
     G          Ami
Come close your eyes
        F   G    Emi
You can see them too
