

The Man Comes Around - Cash, Johnny

Rec.: And I heard as it were the noise of thunder,
One of the four beasts saying: 'Come and see'
and I saw, and behold a white horse

There's a man goin' round takin' names
And he decides who to free and who to blame
Everybody won't be treated all the same
There'll be a golden ladder reaching down
When the Man comes around

The hairs on your arm will stand up
At the terror in his sip and in his sup
Will you partake of that last offered cup
Or disappear into the potters' ground
When the Man comes around

Hear the trumpets, hear the pipers
Onehundred million angels singing
Multitudes are marching to the big cattle drum
Voices calling voices crying
Some are born and some of dying
It's Alpha and Omega's kingdom come.

And the whirlwind is in the thorn tree
And the virgins are all trimming their wicks
The whirlwind is in the thorn tree
It's hard for thee to kick against the pricks

The wise men will bow down before the throne Am F
And at his feet they'll cast their golden crowns G C C C
When the Man comes around

Whoever is unjust let him be unjust still Whoever is righteous let him be righteous still Whoever is filthy let him be filthy still Listen to the words long written down
When the Man comes around

Rec.: And I heard a voice amidst of the four beasts, and I looked and behold a pale horse and his name that sat on him was death, and hell followed with him.
