Cry For Freedom - Helloween

Freedom this cry for all slaves will be heard
And the Tyrans will feel the steal of the sword
The chains will be broken by all slaves on the earth
Forever to be free on their load

Time has run out for all tyrans in this world
Your slaves are heedin´ the call
Mankin´ an end to all this terror and pain
And the end to your lies and your law

Takin´ away all your gold and your money
´cause dead men don´t need it anymore
Much too long we felt the slash of your whips
So now you will feel our sword

Freedom the eternal cry will echo high in the sky
The day will come when all power has been broken
Your blood will flow down to the gates of hell

Satan will wait for your souls
Pray to your god he won´t help you he´s dead
He wonpt fool our minds and souls... anymore

Freedom this cry for all slaves will be heard
And the Tyrans will feel the steal of the sword
The chains will be broken by all slaves on the earth
Forever on their load

Freedom this cry for all slaves will be heard
And the Tyrans will feel the steal of the sword
The chains will be broken by all slaves on the earth
Forever to be free on their load
