1932

```
Em           D        C           C7   H7
What good is melody, what good is mu - sic
Em           D         C           C7   H7
If it ain't possessin' something sweet?
Em           D       C            C7   H7
It ain't the melody, it ain't the mu - sic --
        Em                   D        C        C7   H7
There's something else that makes the tune complete.
