

The New Past - John Wolfhooker

C

I don't believe I'm the only one

E

Who sees right through your web of lies
Everybody so blind and so addicted to hysteria
Wake up, walk straight, keep your eyes down
Keep your thoughts to yourself or you'll be shut down
Four steps, hundred times, walk straight.
This is the new past

Pre-chorus:

We're falling apart, falling apart

Bmi

The time's come for your demise, for your demise

Fmi

I'm too sick of your lies, sick of your lies

F/G#

It's time to lay down your crown
Falling apart, falling apart
The time's come for your demise, for your demise
I'm too sick of your lies, sick of your lies
This is the new past

Chorus:

Fmi

I've been holding back for way too long
I'll light a match to burn it down

Holding back for way too long

Can't stand stand being strung along

Fmi

Set it on fire

Holding back for way too long

C#

Can't stand being strung along

Everyone so thirsty so they keep drinking poison
Feeding people lies still everybody wants some Hollow crown, hollow crown
Worn by a shallow clown, shallow clown
Your words so empty, yet so full of shit
Endlessly greedy hypocrite
Your empire slowly getting out of hand
So just bite the bullet and face the end

We're falling apart, falling apart
The time's come for your demise, for your demise
I'm too sick of your lies, sick of your lies
This is the new past

Chorus

Aren't you tired of turning your coat?
This ship is sinking, there's no redemption
A drowning man will clutch at a straw
I hope you choke on your own deception

I hope you choke on your own deception
I hope that you fucking choke

Pre-chorus

Chorus
