The sun shines,
The dawn breaks,
The phone rings,
And my heart aches,
And there's something telling me,
I'm losing you!
A shadow, a feelin'
The signs show you're leavin'
There's something hurtin'you
And there's nothing I can do
Everybody's rockin'
Everybody's rollin'
Oh let me just singin' the blues
Everybody's rockin'
Everybody's rollin'
Oh me I'm just paying my dues
The good times, the bad times
The sadness of those hard times
It hurts down deep inside
And I'm sad and blue.
The time flies, the nights go
But in my eyes the tears flow
The magic disappeared
And there's nothing I can do.
Everybody's rockin'
Everybody's rollin'
Oh let me just singin' the blues
The rain falls on my window
The birds don't sing no more
The music's far too loud
And I can't take no more
Everybody's rockin'
Everybody's rollin'
Oh let me just singin' the blues
