Vulnerable - Roxette

```
   E                            Asmi
1. Everywhere I look I see her smile
                      A
   Her absent-minded eyes
           Fmi                           E
   And she has kept me wondering for so long
                            H
   How this thing could go wrong
   E                                    Asmi
   It seems to me that we are both the same
                      A
   Playing the same game
          Fmi                                  E
   But as darkness falls this true love falls apart
                          C
   Into a riddle of her heart

             F       Bbmi    H           C
R: She’s so vulnerable like china in my hands
             F       Bbmi   H            C
   She’s so vulnerable and I don’t understand
   F              Bbmi           H
   I could never hurt the one I love
                   C
   She’s all I‘ve got
                 F       H        F
