             G                D           C              D        G
You know the nearer your destination, the more you slip sliding away

                    Em                       G
Whoah and I know a man, he came from my hometown
            C               D            C          C7

            G          D              C          D           G
My love for you so overpowering, I'm afraid that I will disappear

Slip sliding away, slip sliding away
             G                D           C              D        G
You know the nearer your destination, the more you slip sliding away

I know a woman, (who) became a wife
              C              D          C            C7
These are the very words she uses to describe her life

She said a bad day is when I lie in the bed
      C        D                       G
And I think of things that might have been

              G                  Em
Slip sliding away, slip sliding away
             G                D           C              D        G    (F C G)

He longed to tell him all the reasons for the things he'd done
          G                  Em
He came a long way just to explain
              G             D
He kissed his boy as he lay sleeping
        C                    D           G
Then he turned around and he headed home again

              G                  Em
Slip sliding away, slip sliding away
             G                D           C              D        G   (F C G)
You know the nearer your destination, the more you slip sliding away

Whoah God only knows, God makes his plan
    C               D                C         C7
The information s unavailable to the mortal man
