Em G C D
Em G C D Em

[Verse 1]
Em
With the winter time upon ya
Em
No better time to find ya
Em
A place to call your home
Em
And a bride of all your own yes
   C
Go to the edge of the town
         D
Find the girl that was sent down
    Em
For you

[Verse 2]
Em
To a death defying banquet
Em
And liquor by the tankard
Em
To pour across the stones
Em
And wash over the old bones
       C
We'll awaken the deceased
           D
There's no need to call the priest
           Em
And if the devil's at the gate
         Em
Give him drink and let him wait

[Bridge]
        C
We will drink to friends and foes
          D
While our cup it overflows

[Chorus]
Em                  G
Bye bye lover never cry
                   C
You know I'd never lie
                 D
The gypsy dancer caught my eye
    Em                   G
The broken hearted never die
                 C
I'm begging you, lover

[Verse 3]
Em
There's warnings for the young man
Em
And blessings for the bride
Em
Curses for the townsfolk
Em
Who locked themselves inside
        C
And the tinkers and the thieves
        D
Oh, the bodies fall like leaves
        Em
They're screaming at the sky
        Em
And the music never dies

[Bridge]
        C
Til the days melt into one
       D
And we crash into the sun

[Chorus]
Em                  G
Bye bye lover never cry
                   C
You know I'd never lie

The gypsy dancer caught my eye
