[Verse 1]

[C] [F] [C] [G]
A crack in the sky lends a light to the dark
[C] [A] [G] [C]
The wind blows the ember, a coal from the hearth
You carry it proudly through ditches and trees
And cross the horizon to lie down and sleep

[Chorus]

[Ami] [D/G] [C]
Lie down and sleep, sleep well my darling
Blue is the eye watches over the sea
Lie down and sleep, sleep well my darling
Blue is the eye that looks after thee

[Verse 2]

Over the ocean toward a new world
The city, the island, the tear in the pearl
A boat on the water casts out a clear eye
The darkness beneath us is teeming with life

[Chorus]

[Verse 3]

Handed the fire from the hearth on the hill
The coal and the ember, they glow away still
Songs to the stranger, familiar and clear
Ring out in chorus for all you hold dear

[Chorus]

[Verse 4]

A flash in the dark glimmers silver and blue
Breaches the waves for a moment or two
Moves away slowly back into the deep
Blue is the eye watches over the sean

[2xChorus]
